

61st WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Clewell, New Columbia, celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary September 11th.

They were married by the Rev. Melvin Whitmire at Brown Memorial Evangelical Church, Berwick.

Mrs. Clewell, the former Doris Oberdorf, a native of Nescopeck, graduated from Nescopeck High School and is a homemaker.

Mr. Clewell, a native of Berwick, graduated from Berwick High School and retired with 30 years of service as a Prudential Insurance Agent. He is a resident of Kramm Nursing Home and Rehabilitation Center, Watsontown.

They are the parents of two daughters, Heather, Wilmington, Delaware and Liane Kriner, Reno, Nevada.

There are two grandchildren.

RESIDENTS' RIGHTS

If you have concerns about your rights as a resident, please feel free to contact:

- Carol Insinger or Sadie Reichenbach, Social Services at Kramm Nursing Home.
- Ombudsman at Northumberland County Area Agency on Aging – 570-495-2371 or 1-877-622-2251.
- The Governor's Action Line 1-800-932-9784.
- PA Department of Aging 1-717-793-7247

60th WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCollin, Watsontown, observed their 60th wedding anniversary, September 10.

They were married by the Rev. Eugene Keller, at the First Lutheran Church, Watsontown.

Mrs. McCollin, the former Jean Savidge, is a native of Watsontown. She graduated from Watsontown High School and Nursing School at the Williamsport Hospital. She worked as an RN at Dr. Clark Zimmerman's office in Lewisburg.

Mr. McCollin, a native of Watsontown, graduated from Watsontown High School and worked as a purchasing agent for 40 years at Philco Ford/ Zenith in Watsontown.

He is an Air Force Veteran of World War II. Both Mr. and Mrs. McCollin are residents of Kramm Nursing Home and Rehabilitation Center.

They are the parents of two sons, William, Watsontown; and Edward, Appleton, Wisconsin.

HAPPY HALLOWEEN

